Fletcher appoints two to farm commission

THE ENQUIRER

FRANKFORT - Gov. Ernie Fletcher has appointed James N. Cook of Morning View and Jeanne Ellis of Mount Olivet to the Governor's Commission on Family Farms.

Cook is a recruiter for Bluegrass Challenge Authority. He attended Morehead State and Liberty universities and graduated from the Command and General Staff College of the United States Army. He is a member of the American Legion, Bradford Lodge 123 F&AM and the Kenton County Planning Commission.

Ellis is a finance officer for the Robertson County Fiscal Court and attended the University of Kentucky. She serves as women's chair of the Kentucky Farm Bureau District 9 and is a member of the Robertson County Health Tax Board and the Robertson County Early Childhood Development Council.

ADVERTISEMENT The Governor's Commission on Family Farms advises the governor on issues of marketing assistance, diversification, labor assistance, urban and rural partnerships and infrastructure, and market development for new crops and products.
